PAC IS COMMUNIST AND DEMOCRATS KNOW IT, GOV. MARTIN CHARGES IN STATE-WIDE RADIO ADDRESS

A Victory For The Democratic Party Would Be A Victory For The PAC, and A Victory For The PAC Would Be A Victory For Communism, Says Speaker

HARRISBURG, Oct. 15—Over a live than the sweep of invading arm-state-wide radio hookup, last night, Governor Edward Martin, Republican candidate for U. S. Senator, gain discussed the issues of the campaign.

Governor Martin said:

Two weeks ago I discussed with you the Democratic State Platform, told you then, and I tell you again.

It is unique for its cowardice, its visions, its contradictions and its utter disregard of realities.

Again, let me say, it clearly shows how far the present leaders of the Democratic Party in Pennsylvania have wandered from the faith of their great founders. Those men and reverence for the immortal principles of the Declaration of Independence and of the Constitution, their unworthy political descendants have forgotten that faith and abandoned those principles.

Again, I repeat, Collectivism—of Americanism—is the keynote of their platform.

Its sordid and wholly materialistic approach is shocking to Americans of every faith. It appeals to the baser motives of mankind, to greed, prejudice and jealousy. It reaches discontent and selfishness at a time when our returning veterans are being asked to help in the great cause of world peace, which must have the spiritual backing of our people or it will fail.

The Communist and the materialist do not believe in the power of the church. Yet, through the great fabric of American advancement has run a golden thread of deep religious conviction.

There is still an even more illuminating question of what is not in the Democratic platform. A party platform is a guide for the action of the party.

This campaign turns on three first questions:

First, inflation and the growing financial crisis of the Government.

Second, the rapid upsurge and spread of Communism.

Third, the question of whether, after the election is over, the PAC or the people of Pennsylvania will be running the State?

We have had more than thirteen unlucky years of deficit financing, in which all the property of the American people has been mortgaged by the greatest public debt in all history.

Much of that money went in the name of war; but how much went for victory and how much went for craft we will never know until a Republican Congress can rip off the lid.

The Budget must be balanced; it has not been balanced. Instead, peacetime spending has actually been increased. Fiscal double-talk and fancy bookkeeping are increasing the dangers of inflation.

The top-heavy structure of debt is the real reason for inflation. It is not corrected, collapse is inevitable. In that collapse every American will lose the value and earning power of all property or investments he owns.

We are a nation of property owners, in which the title to homes, bank accounts, workmen's compensation funds, insurance, war bonds, securities, pensions, annuities, saving funds and all other forms of property are held by the people. The lifetime savings of millions of our people are in grave danger. Inflation would be the worst disaster in all time. It would be a catastrophe more devastating and destructive than the sweep of invading armies.

Yet it is approaching. And what solution does the Democratic Party offer in the face of this ominous threat? No solution whatever!

And what safeguards does it offer against the danger of Communism, which now has contaminated practically every nation in the world? The United States is the only remaining and last Gibraltar of Liberty—and the waves of Communism are daily rising higher.

Communist doctrines have infiltrated deep into the American system. Many of our governmental safeguards for human liberty already have been destroyed. Communists, under the New Deal, have been appointed to high public offices of influence and power. They are doing their dirty work with impunity and with your money.

Communism no longer walks on tiptoe in America. It is thundering at your door.

No American knows more about the Red threat to this Nation than J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the F. B. I. In San Francisco last week he told his fellow-countrymen that:

"We are rapidly approaching the time when loyal Americans must be willing to stand up and be counted."

He warned his great soldier audience—and many of them had gone through years of war—that:

"The veteran who fought for America will be among the first to suffer if the Communists succeed in carrying out their diabolical plots to wreck the American way of life."

He repeated what millions of Americans now know: that great swarms of fellow-travelers, Red satellites and false and so-called "progressive and phony liberals" march with the avowed Communists.

Yet this Democratic State Platform here in Pennsylvania, dragging wearily through thousands of words, finds not one word to say about Communism. The word is never mentioned.

Closely connected with Communism is the issue of the PAC. In this campaign the PAC is the real opponent of the Republican Party and of the people. It has taken the wheel and is the reckless driver of the Democratic machine.

The Democratic candidates, afraid to face the voter in this campaign on their own record in office, or on the record of the incompetent, confused and spendthrift National Government, were quick to sell out to the PAC early in the game.

They have all signed up. Look at the record. It is a public document. It could not be hidden. The PAC is to collect and expend money for them. The PAC is now blacklisting the slush funds out of the pockets of the workers, on the threat of losing their jobs. They plan to black-jack and bludgeon the voters in the same way.

The PAC claims it is nonpartisan, and insists it is not required to account for its slush funds. Is that American? Does it comply with our Corrupt Practices Act?

But this brazen scheme has already backfired. The PAC is under attack. The patriotic members of the Unions know the situation. The associates of the PAC leaders and their own fellow-members know them best, and they are attacking.

Wm. C. Dunlap, Native Of Hulmeville, Dies

HULMEVILLE, Oct. 15—William Carey Dunlap, a native of this borough, died last evening at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boylan, Haddonfield, N. J. Mr. Dunlap, who was 62 years of age, was the son of the late John and Carrie Dunlap. The deceased had been stricken on Saturday morning, death being attributed to thrombosis.

Survivors include a daughter, Elizabeth, and son, Richard; and two sisters, Mrs. Boylan and Mrs. Horace C. Cox, the latter of Hulmeville. Service will be conducted on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock at a funeral home at 8 Kings Highway, west, Haddonfield. Friends may call Wednesday evening between seven and nine o'clock.

BRISTOL H. S. BAND TO PLAY IN PHILA.

Will Participate in Annual Band Day Program at University of Penna.

AFFAIR ON OCT. 19TH

The Bristol senior high school band will be among 18 secondary school bands participating in the 12th annual Band Day to be held at the University of Pennsylvania on Saturday, October 19th.

The Band Day, a tri-state festival, will be under auspices of the University's Cultural Olympics, of which Dr. Frederick C. Gruber is director, and the band committee of the university.

The student bands will assemble at Irvine Auditorium on the campus at 9:30 a. m., and will parade from there to the university Museum Field, 32nd and South streets.

During the program on Museum Field, beginning at 10:30 o'clock, each band will drill and play before a group of judges, and will be rated on the basis of music, marching ability, and uniforms.

In the afternoon the bands will be guests of the University of Pennsylvania's Division of Intercollegiate Athletics at the Virginia-Pennsylvania football game on Franklin Field.

The bands will march around the field before the game, and, if time permits, individual bands which have displayed unusual ability during the morning drill will repeat their maneuvers for the benefit of spectators at the game.

Arrangements for participation of Bristol high school band in the program were made by David Hertzler, principal of the school.

J. Paul Nuse is director of the 42-piece band. Serving as student band president is Horace Hinds, while the drum majorettes are Lillian Brownlee and Audrie Brinton.

PLAN BOOK REVIEW

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Oct. 15—A review of the book "Mamma's Bank Account" will be presented by Mrs. Harry Feaster, of Philadelphia, at the meeting of Cornwells Parent-Teacher Association on Thursday evening. The session will commence at eight o'clock in Bensalem Township high school auditorium. Refreshments will follow the meeting.

CLASS SUPPER

The monthly meeting of the Bible class of Bristol Methodist Church School taught by Miss Annie Herli-tage, will be held tonight in the church. A covered dish supper for members will precede the meeting, the supper being held at six o'clock in the banquet hall.

IF YOU HAVE HAD ENOUGH OF THE NEW DEAL PIPE DREAM, VOTE REPUBLICAN, SAYS LIVENGOOD

BUCKINGHAM, Oct. 15—"If you have had enough of the New Deal Pipe Dream, vote Republican and see to it that all your friends and relatives do the same thing," declared Secretary of Internal Affairs William S. Livengood, in an address last evening before 600 men and women attending a capacity meeting at the headquarters of the Loyal Republican Club of Bucks County.

The always popular Somerset County Republican leader was introduced by former U. S. Senator Joseph R. Grundy of Bristol, who presented the guest speaker as "one of the outstanding young Republicans of this country."

In his opening remarks, Secretary Livengood, candidate for reelection to another term, said: "I am proud to be known as a friend of your Senator Grundy whom I consider one of the outstanding Republican leaders of all time. I wonder whether you folks here in Bucks County appreciate the real privilege of having this great American as your leader."

Then turning to Mrs. Arthur James, wife of the former governor of Pennsylvania, Secretary Livengood said, "and to you, Mrs. James, I want to state, that no greater, no more sincere and efficient public officer ever held the governorship of Pennsylvania."

"Because of many things, it is a privilege to be a Pennsylvanian," the guest speaker continued. "The greatest glory of Pennsylvania and the United States is not its scenic beauty but it is this country's men and women. Pennsylvania cannot be hurt until its men and women are hurt."

"The New Deal has destroyed the pride of many people of America. The New Deal believes that you are a little too dumb to run your own business and your own farm, so the New Deal plans to run them for you."

Secretary Livengood said that he sometimes thinks that "the Hitler

Key has been delivered to Stalin"—that we rescued the small nations of Europe from German dictatorship only to turn them over to Russian dictatorship.

"Sometimes we wonder whether this last war was worthwhile when you look at conditions today. Certainly here in Pennsylvania alone, where 33,000 boys died in the war to bring peace to all nations—we have a right to know what the foreign policy of this government is going to be," Secretary Livengood made a plea to replace that "cancer on the body politic, Sen. Guffey," and send Pennsylvania's Governor Martin to the U. S. Senate in the forthcoming election.

The speaker also stressed the importance of sending Congressman Charles L. Gerlach of Allentown back to Congress. "The cure of this great evil, the New Deal, is in Washington, not in Harrisburg," Livengood said. "We in Harrisburg—men like your very efficient Representatives, Wilson Yeakel and Thomas Stockham, and the other Republican candidates—can keep the disease from spreading into Pennsylvania, but to eliminate it you must strike at its source in Washington."

Secretary Livengood made no prediction as to what the President of the United States would say during his "meat talk" last night, but he did point out that "it is a sad state of affairs when the people of this country have to fight over a piece of meat and hospital patients have to eat horse flesh and housewives do not have enough soap to do the family washing."

"Do you realize that we do not have enough meat to feed our own American boys overseas and must borrow meat from England?" Livengood continued. "Let me also call attention to the fact that Harry Truman and Senator Guffey didn't do anything about the meat shortage until the Republicans put on the heat in Washington, together."

SWITCHBOARD HERE PLACED IN USE

Bell Telephone Co. Reopens Facilities Here on Part-Time Basis

TO EASE CONGESTION

In order to expedite the handling of ever-increasing volumes of toll and long distance telephone calls, The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania has placed in service a switchboard in the Bristol Central Office building, it was announced today by W. B. Taylor, local telephone manager.

Since 1941, Bristol's tolls and long distance calls have been handled by operators in the new and larger Langhorne office. However, this office is working at capacity as a result of a 34% increase in the number of toll calls handled during the last year.

By relieving the Langhorne office of many of the out of town calls made by Bristol subscribers, the change will make possible not only faster service for Bristol telephone users, but also for those in Langhorne, Hulmeville, Newtown, Yardley and Morrisville, whose toll calls are handled through the Langhorne office.

A number of telephone operators who live in Bristol will be stationed at the local switchboard.

"The record breaking number of calls being made by subscribers in this section have meant that during the peak hours of the day when calling is heaviest there have been times when calls come in faster than the operators could answer them," Mr. Taylor said.

"Although more equipment is on order to increase the size of the Langhorne switchboard, it will be some time before this work can be completed. Facilities which are being placed in service at the Bristol switchboard should result in better service for all."

"The Bristol switchboard will be operated during the day-time when calling is heaviest, at other times the Langhorne switchboard will continue to handle Bristol's out of town calls."

REBEKAHS TO MEET

A meeting of Lily Rebekah Lodge, No. 366, will be held Wednesday evening in Odd Fellows' Hall, at which time a financial collection will be taken for the annual Rebekah Home "jar day." The past noble grands will hold a meeting following the regular session.

3 OF 4 LIBELLANTS LISTED ARE HUSBANDS

Only Woman Libellant Is Gertrude S. Gray, Who
Names Earl A. Gray

APPEAL FROM J. OF P.

DOYLESTOWN, Oct. 15—Three of the four libellants filing suits for divorces here are the husbands. Another case is that of an appeal from a Sellersville justice of the peace.

Following decision by Justice of the Peace Paul H. Stanley, of Sellersville, on August 9th, when he entered judgment against the tenant, an appeal has been filed in the office of the Prothonotary.

Justice Stanley ruled in the case of Elizabeth S. Jackson, Sellersville, against Wilmer and Verda Kilmer, Sellersville, that judgment be entered against the lessee.

He maintained that the defendants had rented the premises at 110 N. Main street, that borough, which is owned by the plaintiff, on definite terms, that those terms had expired and that the tenants had been notified to quit the place at a certain date.

An action has been begun by Garland K. Nyce, Telford, seeking a divorce from his wife, Pearl Z. Nyce, Sellersville R. D. The two were married in 1929. The libellant entered the army in May, 1944, and was discharged in 1945. They separated six months ago.

Beatrice M. Falk, Doylestown, has been named respondent in a libel in divorce, by her husband, Jacob Falk, Jr., E. Rockhill Township. The two were wed April 23, 1932, in Doylestown, and separated Sept. 19, 1942.

Walter Williams, Philadelphia, has named his wife, Anna Marie Williams, the respondent in a divorce action. They were married Jan. 13, 1942, in Bristol and separated Dec. 25, that year. The libellant entered the army February 4, 1942. Mrs. Williams now lives in Morrisville.

The only woman libellant, Mrs. Gertrude S. Gray, named her husband, Earl A. Gray, Trenton, N. J., the respondent in a divorce suit. They were wed on June 29, 1936, in Newtown, and separated April 15, 1945. Mrs. Gray now lives at Washington Crossing.

IS SHOWER GUEST

Miss Rose Basile, 632 Spruce street, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given by her attendant-to-be, Miss Eva Pico, Pine street, at the Terchon Post home on Thursday evening. One hundred guests attended from Trenton, N. J., Bristol and Philadelphia. Dancing, games and refreshments were enjoyed, and decorations were in red, white and blue.

Pacusan Dreamboat Runs Into Difficulty

Paris—The Pacusan Dreamboat ran into mechanical trouble two hours and 47 minutes after taking off on a record run to New York today and returned to the Orly airfield. It took off at 10:25 a. m., Paris time, and landed again at approximately 1:12 p. m.

American Army officers at Orly announced that Col. C. S. Irvine, skipper of the huge B-29, ordered the plane turned about after the mechanical difficulties occurred.

Yugoslav Delegation Boycotts Conference

Paris—The Yugoslavian delegation, which repeatedly warned that its government would sign no treaty which it considers unfavorable, boycotted the final session of the Paris Peace Conference today.

Postpone Action Against Slaughterers

Philadelphia—The Regional Office of Price Administration today temporarily postponed action on 18 injunction suits filed against 19 slaughterers in Eastern Pennsylvania.

The OPA had asked the courts for injunctions restraining the slaughterers from paying more than the ceiling price for live cattle. The suits were to have been heard today, but the OPA's request for a postponement was granted by Federal Judge Guy K. Bard over the motion of several defense attorneys for outright dismissal.

Two Bucks Counties were among those named. They are William F. Wendig, Jr., of Richboro, and Howard L. Dunlap of Blooming Glen.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

Proof

Washington, Oct. 15.

ONE reason our political system does not work better is the difficulty of getting unclouded facts through to the mass American mind. Such are the arts of publicity, the skill of the propagandist and the guile of the politician that it is always possible to construct a damning truth in a way to confuse the individual. Instead of admitting mistakes, the game is to meet exposure with violent counter-charges. When caught with the goods, recognized procedure is to accuse the other side of even blacker crimes. After a few exchanges, the average citizen is so bewildered that he is unable to distinguish between what is true and what is not.

NO better illustration of this can be had than the Communist issue, which for a number of years has played its part in every campaign and in this one is more acute than ever before. In the past the accusation of Communist support from one side has always been answered by the cry of "Red baiter" and "politics" from the other. It is not surprising the voters have been bored as well as bewildered, unable to know the realities or assess the danger. This time the facts are clearer and the evidence more convincing. For example, there are—and have been—two specific allegations, to sustain which, proof now is too weighty to be dismissed. The first is that American Communists consistently work to undermine the United States Gov-

COUNCIL CONSIDERS REGULATING JUNK YARDS IN BOROUGH

Ordinance Committee To Confer With Borough
Solicitor on Subject

DISCUSSTRAINSERVICE

Parking Meters Collections
Total $381.62 in Sept.,
Police Report

There was a wide range of subjects discussed by borough council, last night. They included revenue from parking meters, snow removal from Mill street, improved train service, regulation or prohibition of junk yards within the borough limits and the purchase of all property of Civilian Defense loaned to the borough during World War II.

The police reported a total of $381.62 was collected from the parking meters in collections made on September 16th and 25th, the latter including collections from meters on Mill street only. There was a total of 17,867 deposits in the coin boxes of the meters during that period of time. Eight of the meters were damaged by vandals inserting match sticks, chewing gum and other foreign objects and substances. There are 151 meters in operation. The meters were put in service September 10th.

In the report, Chief of Police Linford J. Jones informed the police committee that plans should be considered at once for snow removal in winter time so that it will be possible to park automobiles in the parking meter area. This suggestion was referred to the proper authorities.

Councilman Fry informed council that $147 had been collected in fines during September for violations of the parking meter ordinance.

Police reported 34 arrests during September. Seven were held for court, 21 fined, one committed to the county prison, four discharged.

There were 46 lodgers sheltered, five incandescent lights were reported out, three doors found unlocked and the prowl car answered 118 alarms and was driven 3,315 miles.

Councilman Pearson reported that work was yet to be done on Prospect street from Beaver to Corson street and on Water street, and on Cedar and Pond streets from Mill street to the parking lot. Inlets at Beaver and Pond streets, some also in the sixth ward are being taken care of and improved. A number of lights have been ordered for certain streets from the Philadelphia Electric Company.

"It is also planned," Mr. Pearson, said, "to put more cinders on the parking lot, roll them and place a seal coating. This may not get finished this fall."

Burgess Jacob C. Schmidt asked that a bid be made for civilian defense property placed here by the Government during the war. Council authorized a bid of $500 be placed with the government for four emergency pumps, medical supplies, extinguishers and all other equipment of the civilian defense now charged to the borough.

It was suggested by Burgess Schmidt that council take some action toward prohibiting or controlling junk yards or automobile graveyards. The matter was referred to the Ordinance Committee to confer with the borough solicitor.

Councilman Byers asked council to endeavor to have the P. R. R. stop the 5 p. m. train out of Broad street station at Bristol. "There are a large number of residents who now are forced to wait for a later train and are compelled to stand most of the way to Bristol." The 5 p. m. train to New York could, I believe, be stopped here and it would greatly benefit the community and a large number of our residents," said Mr. Byers.

There was a general discussion about the infrequency of train service in and out of Bristol. Councilman Riley stated that in 1922 there were 52 trains stopping here while now there are only 22 or 24.

Council voted to contact the P. R. R. Company and to discuss with

As Orren Rufe, of Otter street, peered down into the waters of the canal at Mill street yesterday afternoon, with a weather-eye out for pickerel, he espied what he thought was a label.

Looking more intently at the "label" to ascertain how it read, he had a real thrill.

Home he hurried for his rod and line, and soon had "cast out" in hope of getting a real "bite" of that green label.

And in an instant he had landed a five dollar bill.

WHEN NIGHT IS DONE

Thomas Moore said that the best of all ways to lengthen the days is to steal a few hours from the night. This will be impossible if and when Prof. Etienne Vassy of the Sorbonne succeeds in turning night into day. There will be a myriad of other difficulties.

It may be necessary to call Henry Wallace, who once proposed 60 million jobs, back into government service to create day jobs for the unemployed. Think of the burglars who will be out of work under the moonlight-saving plan. What will become of the all-night lunchroom? Of night baseball? Of night watchmen?
There will be no night clubs.

The carrot-growing industry will be ruined; people will not need vitamin A in order to see at night once night has been abolished. Radio stations will be face to face with the necessity of rearranging their programs, because householders, ordinarily at home in the evening, will be out on the golf courses and tennis courts.
Urban dwellers will have to go to rural areas, where night will not yet have been abolished, in order to view pyrotechnical displays.

What will be the effect of night-abolition on the theater? Will novelists who now do their best writing at night proceed to turn out shoddy in the daytime? How will the names of famous books, plays and movies sound? What,
for instance, will people of the future think of such titles as The Arabian Nights, Out of the Night,
Night Must Fall, The Night Com-
eth, Midsummer Night's Dream, Ten Nights in a Barroom? The reading of anything written before 1947 will sound like something out of this world.

Think of what might happen in the zoological and ornithological worlds. At present cats can see in the dark, and as every schoolboy knows, that ability of the feline species helps to eradicate rats and mice. But if night is abolished, the cat's ability to see at night will gradually atrophy.
Then suppose an atomic war comes along and night-abolition plants are destroyed. Cats no longer able to see at night will be sneered at by rats and mice. But during the years when there is no night, towns and villages will be strange places. Nightingales and whippoorwills will not be heard. Owls may not give a hoot.

nese dollars if you bring your

The Great Game of Politics

ernment and promote economic chaos; the second, that American Communists have deliberately chosen the Democratic party as the vehicle best suited for these purposes and the CIO and its PAC as their most effective instruments.

AS TO the first, impressive testimony came not long ago from Mr.
J. Edgar Hoover, head of the FBI, who charged that Communists
"boring from within" are in a "wicked plot" to "wreck the country." This charge when made by others invariably evoked denial and scorn. But there was neither denial nor scorn as a result of Mr.
Hoover's charges — first, because
Mr. Hoover concededly knows more about Communist activities than any other man in the country; second, because he is not interested in hurting or helping any political party; third, because denouncing Mr. Hoover as "seeing goblins" is silly. It is interesting that a committee of lawyers of the United States Chamber of Commerce after a year's study has just made public a report in which it sustains the Hoover charges and soberly asks Congress to recognize the real danger of the situation. They are also sustained by revelation in the Milwaukee Journal that in the Allen-Chalmers strike, now in its sixth month, the Communists have taken over the union and the strike is directed by recognized Communists
from Communist headquarters.

AS to the allegation that the Communists have adopted the Democratic party, there has been piled up a mountain of proof which,
however, does not prevent vehement denials and denunciations whenever presented. But last week, when the Democratic national committeeman and committeewoman from Wisconsin joined the Democratic State chairman in designating a Democratic candidate for Congress an out-and-out Communist, and in calling for his defeat, neither denial nor denunciation was possible.

THIS Wisconsin incident plus the Hoover charges plus the Chamber of Commerce committee report
plus the Milwaukee revelations plus the situation in Seattle, where communism is the real issue, help enormously in establishing the truth. This does not mean that the Democratic party has become Communist. It does mean that the Communists have become "Democrats" for their own sinister purposes. It does mean that the aforesaid allegations about Communist politics and purposes can no longer be laughed off as foolish or denounced as false. It does mean that the Democratic party owes it to itself and the country to cleanse itself of this poison, get out of a position where it concededly is dependent for success on the Communist-controlled American Labor party in New York.

CERTAINLY, it has become vital to the party to free itself from an alliance with the admittedly Communist-saturated CIO; to make its principles unattractive to Communists generally and turn its policies in the opposite direction. Merely denouncing communism and repudi-ating Communist support is absurd so long as the party candidates continue to get that support. Communists are not discouraged by denunciation. The only way to get rid of them is to make it plain that the party they have chosen is heading away from the Communist goals instead of going straight toward them
as it has been doing since 1933.
If the price of doing this is Democratic defeat, in the long run it will be well worth while for the Democratic party to pay it. Certainly, it will be worth while for the country.

IN face of the facts, it is discouraging to have the Attorney General of the United States in a radio address assert that he knows all about American Communists; that there is nothing in these charges;
that the issue is only raised for political purposes. If Mr. Clark does not know better than that, he ought not to be Attorney General.
If he does know better, it is outrageous for him to have dismissed
the subject as he did.

Requests were received for permits to erect signs in front of 127
Mill street and 142-148 Otter street.
They were referred to street and highway committee with power to act.

Councilman Fry, of Police Committee, reported five candidates had recently taken the examination to become police officers. Three passed and of these one failed to obtain a physician's certificate. Two were appointed as officers by police committee and these appointments were confirmed last night. The officers are William Chance and John P.

Add Ten Names to Roster Of Junior Women's Club

YARDLEY, Oct. 15—The Yardley Junior Civic Club has elected ten new members.

Those named to the club roster at a session at the end of the week are: "Betty Lou" and Neva Cadwallader, Virginia Ellis, Marjorie Garlits, Marie Hand, Virginia Kelso, Martha Macartney, Frances Marshall, Helen Scott and Lavina White.

Members took part in a discussion regarding the possibilities of making the meeting room more attractive and comfortable. Members were asked to try to locate articles, such as floor lamps, candlesticks, ash trays, and suitable kitchen equipment which might be donated for club use. Chairs are very much needed.

The leader of the Intermediate Girl Scout troop, Mrs. Bernard G. Stinner, gave a report of her week's work at a leaders' training camp the past summer.

The next meeting of the club will feature a straw ride to Neely's Mill, Washington Crossing, October 17.

Today's Quiet Moment

By Rev. Edward G. Yeomans
Pastor
Bristol Presbyterian Church

O Thou, who art Eternal, Immortal and Invisible, the only True and Wise God, we approach Thy throne of grace through Jesus Christ Thy son, our Lord. Let Thy blessing fall upon mankind, drawing them into a spirit of willing obedience to Thy sacred purpose and blessed will. Give us victory over temptation and sin. Cast out fear and may faith enter in, having Thy spirit to rule over our hearts in righteousness and love. Fulfill in us Thy desires, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crammer, Trenton, N. J., on Sunday.

Mrs. John Arena and son, who were patients in Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia, have returned to the home of Mrs. Arena's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Heath, Sr., Buckley street.

Mrs. G. Carnvale, New Buckley street, spent a few days last week with her father, Charles Harris, Frackville.

ST. ANN'S TO MEET AMBLER TONIGHT IN THAT TOWN

Bristol Boys Need Victory
To Deadlock Olney
'Vets'

UNRUH HERE SUNDAY

St. Ann's Favored to Win
Game Tonight At Ambler

The St. Ann's A. A. gridsters will swing back into league competition tonight at 8:15 on the Ambler high school field, meeting the Ambler A. A. team. St. Ann's needs this victory to deadlock the Olney 'Vets' for the same number of wins in leading the Northeast Conference.

This will be a busy week for the St. Ann's gridsters for after tonight's game they will rest until Sunday when they play Unruh on Leedom's field and the following Wednesday they play the Trenton Bears on the High School field.

St. Ann's is favored to win over the Ambler team which has yet to taste the fruit of a league victory. But the Amblerites have strengthened considerably since they played their last game over a week ago and are out to give the Purple and Gold plenty of trouble.

Holland and Cimionokowski
Finish Fourth in Canoe Race

Fletcher Holland, of Bristol, took part in the second Delaware River canoe marathon from Easton, Pa., to Trenton, N. J., on Saturday, the race being sponsored by the New Jersey Department of Conservation, and the New Jersey Council of State Department of Economic Development. It was sanctioned by the American Canoe Association.

The contestants raced a distance of 55.5 miles, the course being full of thrills and spills, with participants contending with rapids, rocks and falls, and bucking a head-wind. Rain was descending when the 28 contestants left Easton, and less than half finished the race. Three boats were smashed.

There were three classes of entrants, tandem single blade canoes, tandem double blade canoes, and tandem double blade kayaks.

The tandem double blade canoes started at 7:25 a. m. Holland and Stanley Cimionokowski, the latter of Philadelphia, came in at 3:53 p. m., as the fourth tandem double blade canoe to finish. In 1933 these two, together with John Haas and Frank Krick, were the national double blade champions. Holland and Cimionokowski had not, until Saturday, participated in a canoe race since the President's Cup Regatta at Washington, D. C., in 1940.

PAC Is Communist And Democrats Know It, Says
Governor Martin Charges

these fellow-travelers as Left-Wingers and Communist sympathizers.

Yet that bargain with the Democratic candidates still stands. The unholy political alliance remains. The so-called Democrats have not repudiated it. Nor have they told the voters of the State what the PAC expects to get in return for spending hundreds of thousands of dollars for a PAC-Democratic victory.

How are the Democratic spokesmen meeting the issue? They are not meeting it. The keynote speakers who presented the Democratic platform loudly proclaimed there is no such issue in America today as Communism. Every newspaper front page in the country brands such statements as hopelessly stupid, or hopelessly false—or both.

The PAC is Communist in origin and the Democrats know it.

The PAC is Communist in its methods—and the Democrats know it.

The PAC is Communist in its leadership—and the Democrats know it.

The PAC will demand its pound of flesh—and the Democrats know it.

A victory for the Democratic Party would be a victory for the PAC. A victory for the PAC would be a victory for Communism.

The complete silence of the Democratic platform on these three issues is one of the ugliest and most ominous signs of this campaign. That silence is the reason why I brand this platform as cowardly and evasive. There is—and there can be—but one reason why these so-called Democratic candidates fear to bring into the open their views on matters so fundamentally vital to our national well-being and our future. Their silence condemns them.

By contrast, the Republican platform has taken a firm and patriotic position on all these issues. We are not afraid to say where we stand. We are not afraid to stand up and be counted.

We stand on the side of the American Constitution. We have not forgotten the undying truths of the Declaration of Independence. We stand on the side of personal liberty and freedom of action for the individual. We stand on the side of economic stability. We believe that only a solvent nation can be a free nation, and only a free nation can be solvent.

We put our faith in American patriotism—the patriotism that has been attained at home and proven on the distant battlefields of the world. We are proud of our American heritage. We recognize that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," and that freedom must be bought anew by every generation—and we dare the Communists to do their worst.

We stand everlastingly on the side of those who believe in the right of the men and women of Pennsylvania to govern themselves. We pledge ourselves that they shall be forever free from the Red shackles of Communism and the regimentation of collectivism.

We Republicans, unlike our opponents, have not forgotten the proud ancestry of our party. We have not forgotten the Great Dead of America, as the Democrats have forgotten Jefferson and repudiated Jackson and Cleveland. We have not forgotten the splendid history of our Party, starting with Abraham Lincoln, who freed the bondman and saved the Union from its internal enemies in another great crisis.

God willing, the Republican Party, time-tested and tried as by fire, will be ready to save and serve the American Union in the coming months and years.

with a number of dissatisfied Democrats.

"Whatever the President says tonight about the meat situation you can rest assured that it will be political expediency to tide you over until after election."

"I believe that you have had enough of the New Deal Pipe Dream when you realize that our government today has 50,000 Communists on its payroll."

"Certainly it is time to wake up, for all these people are followers of a pattern set by foreign leaders. The main issue in this coming election is this: Do you want to bring the kind of government to Pennsylvania that you have in Washington, or do you want to take to Washington the kind of government we have in Harrisburg?"

Last night's meeting was presided over by Harris Holmes, of Doylestown. Edward B. Watson, Mechanicsville, Republican candidate for State Senator denounced that plans are being made now for the "kiddies" Christmas party to be given by the club in December.

County Chairman A. Harry Clayton, Doylestown, introduced Representatives Yeakel and Stockman, both candidates for re-election; Mrs. Arthur James, formerly of Doylestown; William Scott, Senate Custodian and well-known Republican figure in Harrisburg Government circles; and Secretary of the Senate and House Appropriations Committee, Russell Stoner of Harrisburg.

Rheumatism Pain
Needless Relief
in 7 to 10 minutes

When a man has rheumatism so badly that it is downright agony even to move, and then he seems suddenly to regain complete freedom from pain, the chances are that he has learned the secret of MUSCLE-RUB.

Thousands of other people—by word-of-mouth recommendation—seem to have found complete relief through this new discovery. So far as the painful part of rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, neuralgia, lameness of muscles, bones and joints is concerned, you may forget it with the first application of MUSCLE-RUB. Relief actually comes in 7 to 10 minutes. Chronic cases and those unusually severe will, of course, require continued treatment for a while, but isn't it wonderful that the relief you seek is now so easily obtained?

We urge only that you make this test. MUSCLE-RUB is now obtainable at any drug store. Buy it today. Use one-half the bottle, and if you are not amazed and delighted with the results, return the remaining half to your druggist, and he will refund your money. The price is 50c regular size, $1.00 for large family size.
